

Literacy

To use phonic knowledge to read.
To hear and say sounds in words.
To revise and apply all phonemes and graphemes (Phase 2 and 3).
To blend sounds for reading.
To form letters correctly.
To use writing for a variety of purposes - fact files, labelling, poems, recipes, character descriptions
To use non-fiction books -Antarctica, Chinese New Year, dinosaurs and life cycles.

Communication and language

Role play linked to weekly themes
Asking and answering questions on correct tenses and genders.

Expressive art and design

To experiment with colour mixing
To use different media to achieve a planned effect - collage, painting, junk modelling
To select and use appropriate tools to join and assemble materials - make a dinosaur or dragon
To build a repertoire of songs and dances.

Understanding the world

Learning about animals and habitats
Freezing and melting investigations
Dinosaurs and fossils
Woodland animals
Chinese New Year celebrations and customs
Spring
Lent and Easter celebrations.
To use programmable toys- beebot
I pads

Curious Creatures

Spring 2020

Physical Development

To use small and large equipment with accuracy including scissors, paint brushes and a variety of mark making and construction equipment.
To think about how exercise affects our bodies.
To use a pencil effectively to form recognisable letters, most of which are formed correctly.
Animal movements and dance.

Mathematics

Recognising and ordering numerals up to 30.
Counting objects reliably up to 30.
Counting in 2's and 10's.
Responding to addition and subtraction in rhymes, games and using money.
Recognising addition as the combination of two or more groups.
Understanding subtraction is taking away.
Naming, making and discussing the properties of 2 D shapes.
Using comparative language such as big, medium, small, heavy and light.
Using everyday language in relation to time and money.

Personal, Social & Emotional

Looking after animals and the environment
Friendship
Competition
To appreciate their own and other's talents and skills.
To share and value their own experiences - Show and tell